I request that you overnight the disks to my office upon receipt on Friday. We will have no choice but to file a motion to compel on Monday if we do not receive them by then.

November 4 will not work for us for Jenni's depo. If Jenni has a real conflict with the dates we proposed for Arizona as an accomodation to you, we can do her deposition on the 5th or 6th in NC and do Joe's on the 9th in AZ as planned. Please advise.

We are reviewing the 30b6 areas of inquiry and will identify the representative(s) and dates shortly.

I am told that I should have the disks in my office by Friday.

Regarding Jenni's deposition, the best date I can get from her is Nov. 4 (Wednesday). As you have a local office here, perhaps you can work remotely from Phoenix on the days in between depositions? Also, once you identify the 30(b)(6) deponents, enabling us to identify the additional depositions we will need, it may turn out that one or more of our deponents are in Arizona and we can work them in on those days.

Counsel:

During our call on Thursday, October 9, 2009, you indicated that it was reasonable for us to expect to receive Joe Loomis and Jenni Loomis' document production yesterday. We did not. Please advise today as to when you will produce the documents.

Michelle
